

CALL FOR SPEAKERS

ABOUT THE EVENT

The 16th annual 2021 Diversity Woman's Business Leadership Virtual Conference will attract diverse and multicultural business leaders from the world's largest corporations and entrepreneurs from successful women-owned businesses. The executive development atmosphere of the Conference will allow attendees to make strong connections with their contemporaries who share similar work experiences, challenges and concerns.

Recognized as the premier women's leadership conference for racial, ethnic and gender diversity, attendees hear and learn from some of the most influential thought leaders and executives across the nation and world.

Diversity Woman magazine recognizes the importance of leadership development and empowerment for diverse women. The theme for this year's conference is Empowered to Lead! Our aim is to educate and support diverse and multicultural women leaders and to facilitate their continued growth and success through:

- World-class, inspirational keynotes
- Skill development workshops
- Best practice sharing
- Peer networking and executive coaching

Who Attends

Participants include:

- Mid to Senior Level Women Leaders from corporations
- Women business owners

- Diversity Practitioners – Chief Diversity Officers, VPs, Directors, and Managers
- VP’s, Directors, and Managers of HR
- People Managers, Line Managers and Business Unit Leaders
