Diversity Woman Media is proud to announce the call for our annual Diversity Woman: Game Changer Awards. These awards honor those who have made a significant impact through their support on the advancement of all women in the tech sector, by advocating and leveraging platforms as business leaders and companies to drive equity and equality for women from diverse backgrounds.

The nominees should be leaders in the tech industry who recognize the importance of gender diversity, address the challenges of finding great talent, commit to advancing and retaining diverse talent, and build corporate environments for women to succeed.

The Award Categories are:

- Company Changing the Game for Women in Tech Award
- Woman Supporting Women Award
- Male Ally Award

The award winners will be honored in-person at the annual Business Leaders in Tech Diversity Conference on Thursday, December 8, 2022.

Previous winners have included: Freeda Kapor Klein, Dr. Cynthia Overton, John Chambers, Rami Elghandour, Marilyn Nagel, Genentech, and Salesforce.

Nomination submissions close August 31, 2022
